

SpRING 25th May 1843

Dear Sir

Accept my best thanks for your book on "the Sabbath" which I shall have much pleasure in reading during my journey homewards - I am on the point of leaving town with my family & I much regret that I am thus unable to have further conversation with you regarding the African - after Gods day on both sides of the Atlantic which mutually we have so much at heart.
The friends of that good cause both in SpRING & London will I am sure be Happy to make you acquainted to discuss the practicability of mutual cooperation - I beg to endorse the addresses of the gentlemen in Spinkhoff who have made great exertions for the one speaking of Mr. Webb - to whom you might with great propriety introduce yourself - If I can be of any use toward promoting your plans in London, I would beg you to inform me - My address is at Lockman Castle near Stranraer.

I hope you received a few Webb papers already sent - Enclosed are your excellent letters a Webb on Travelling by the New Edward Young of Clifton near Bristol.

Who would I am ever be glad to receive your information on that subject -

Thank you much best - I have the honor to be - Dear Sir your faithful servant

Andrew Agnew

To
the Revd

Amos A. Phelps
of Boston

1840